HAPPY THANKSGIVING

WHAT ARE YOU THANKFUL FOR?

Thanksgiving is that wonderful time of year where you can sit back, relax, and enjoy family time and an indulgent meal. Maybe you're looking forward to football or the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Or, you've been waiting all year for that turkey and pumpkin pie. But most importantly Thanksgiving is a day to reflect on who and what you are thankful for. So this Thanksgiving break away from your normal routine, and make your food pick up route and lastly, make your last stop and enjoy your time off.

Also, short days, crisp air and warming colors is the symptoms of the cooler season. Summer is over and the shorts are replaced with your favorite pair of jeans. Autumn is infamous for its 'sweater weather' and countdown for plates of turkey. Once again, like a superhero, UAE is here to save the day with current news, events and updates to keep you "hip". With the change in the season, it is important for you remember your healthy habits to get through.
