As their time in the White House comes to an end, President Obama and the First Lady Michelle Obama continue to sprinkle greatness onto their legacy with the opening of the National Museum of African-American History and Culture.

Standing as the 19th Smithsonian museum, the museum seeks to reintroduce the world to the African-American story and shed light on

HAUNTED RECIPE

Bloody Cups

Ingredients:

1 cup frozen raspberries

1 tablespoon rice syrup

1 cup + ¼ cup (150g + 100g) vegan baking chocolate (or chocolate chips)

Instructions:

Heat the frozen raspberries in a small pot on medium-high heat until soft, mash the raspberries until there are no large chunks anymore & add the rice syrup. Give it a mix and set aside to cool.

In a double boiler, melt 1 cup of the chocolate. Meanwhile place 8 muffin liners in a muffin pan.

Place about 1½ teaspoon of melted chocolate in the muffin liners and tilt them, so the chocolate spreads to the sides.

Repeat for all the muffin liners and place it into the fridge for a few minutes (until the chocolate hardens). Melt ¼ cup of vegan chocolate in the double boiler.

Meanwhile add about a teaspoon of the raspberry filling into the chocolate coated muffin liners (place it in the middle).

Once the chocolate has melted, pour it over the raspberry filling. Tilt it a bit so the top is covered with the chocolate completely.

Let it harden in the fridge for about 5 minutes.

Once the chocolate is hard, carefully remove the cupcake liners and enjoy.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY

When celebrating Halloween this year, be smart! A sudden arrest, sick friend or missing car can bring your party to an abrupt halt. Here are a few tips to keep you safe and sane this Halloween.

1. If driving to a college campus or parking on one, be sure to follow all parking restrictions, and read the signs. Be sure to lock your car doors and don't leave anything valuable inside.
2. If staying in a residence hall and inviting friends to crash, be sure you check the rules on having guests that weekend. As with parking, the rules may change during busy weekends.
3. If you live in an apartment or house, know who is staying at your place if you're having guests over. Try to get to know your roommates' guests too.
4. For the safety of yourself and others, don't wear a costume that includes anything that could be confused with a real weapon. Don't wear anything that could be taken as impersonating a police officer
5. If of legal drinking age, don't leave your drink unattended, and never accept a drink from someone you don't know.
6. Don't walk alone at night; travel in a group at all times and never travel with someone you don't know.
7. If visiting a school you are unfamiliar with, know your surroundings. Know where you're staying and where the campus security office can be found.
8. Put an emergency number in your cell phone such as campus security, your friend's and maybe even your friend's roommate. If you get lost or separated, you'll want to know who to call. Also, carry your cell phone on you at all times.
